

God of all life

Mysteriously present always and everywhere

Move us by the power of your spirit to understand even a little that by simply trying to be open to you we can be powerful instruments of your love bringing something of your light, your joy and your peace to others.

May we have the humility to believe that this is so

And the generosity to live accordingly.

Amen.