Who Are We?

Le Chéile Schools Trust brings together 14 Catholic congregations, that have traditionally provided world class education in Ireland, under one umbrella body. Le Chéile Schools Trust currently looks after the educational needs of over 35,000 secondary school students in over 52 schools nationwide.

What Are We Offering?

Le Chéile Schools offer a new model of Catholic Education - combining the best wisdom of the past with a dynamic vision for the future for all our young people. Catholic schools are the bedrock of the highly educated and skilled workforce that is heralded by business leaders internationally. Le Chéile Schools continue this tradition of empowering our youth with a solid foundation in life and a bright future.

Spirituality

Le Chéile Schools students develop a strong sense of their own worth and become aware of the spiritual dimension of life. Students are given a solid foundation in the Christian faith whilst learning respect for other faiths and points of view.

Community

We believe that school is a community and that young people can flourish and develop in a caring community of belonging.

Academic Excellence

Le Chéile Schools pursue the highest academic standards. Our new school will offer a wide range of subjects with the most up-to-date information technology

Pastoral Care

Le Chéile Schools create school environments that are caring and compassionate, where each child is known and appreciated as an individual.

Sport, Music, Drama, Media, etc

We aim to create well-rounded young people who have been exposed to a wide range of extracurricular activities - aiming to develop all of their talents and interests.
